

classification & compensation decision tree

This diagram is intended to serve as a first assessment tool to determine what classification or compensation action may be appropriate when operational needs require that significant additional job duties be assigned to one or more positions.

Please contact Human Resources for further assistance.

