

SAN FRANCISCO
STATE UNIVERSITY

You are invited to attend a virtual event via Zoom:

Women at Work and the Work We Do

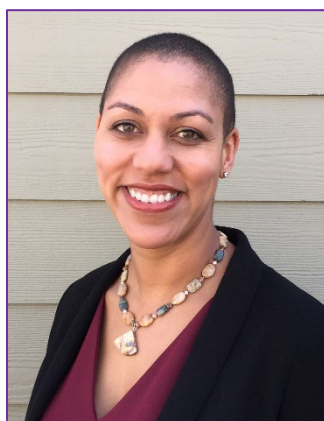

Monday, March 29, 2021 from 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM

SF State honors International Women's History Month, in a casual conversation with three remarkable Bay Area women as SF State alumna, leading at work and in their community, tending to family and shouldering multiple roles, as women often do.

Guest Panelists:

Elmy Bermejo
*Regional Director, NorCal
Office of the Governor*

Christine Chilcott
*Chief Executive Officer
Girls Inc. of the Island City*

Juslyn Manolo
*Mayor
City of Daly City*

Hosted by:

Introduction by President Lynn Mahoney, moderated by Ingrid C. Williams, Associate Vice President of Human Resources at San Francisco State University.

This virtual event is open to SF State Staff, Faculty and Student Leaders. Space is limited. RSVP by March 19. This event welcomes persons with disabilities and reasonable accommodations may be provided upon request. Send an email to women@sfsu.edu or use your smartphone camera and hover over this QR Code to go directly to the RSVP registration. Your Zoom link will be sent by March 12th.

